

1. What was the most common material that people in New England once used to make clothing?
2. A _____ is used to create fabric or cloth.
3. What was the energy source that once powered early mills?
4. What was the name of the fictional mill that Josiah Gresham and Shadrack built?
5. An early mill could spin the same amount of material as how many people?
6. How did mill owners access river energy?
7. In what year did Samuel Slater build the first American mill?
8. The _____ began employing hundreds of workers.
9. In what city of Massachusetts did Lowell build his famous textile mill?
10. What did Lowell do to attract farm girls to work in his factories?
11. What day of the week did Lowell girls get to take off?
12. What did some factory workers begin doing when unsafe working conditions, low wages, and long hours became unbearable?
13. What name did Slater give to the mill he built in 1806?
14. What was the new source of energy that made it possible to run a machine anytime and anyplace?
15. Why did many New England mills begin moving south?